Easy White Chicken Chili

A simple slow-cooker chili with chicken breast and white beans.

This is an easy twist on traditional chili. Add everything to the slow cooker in the morning and come home to a warm dinner. It's also great with rotisserie chicken.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1/4 lb boneless, skinless chicken
- 2 (15 oz) cans cannellini beans
- 1 (15 oz) can white corn
- 1 envelope taco seasoning
- 1 (4.5 oz) can green chiles
- 1 (10.75 oz) can condensed cream of chicken soup
- 1 (14 oz) can chicken broth
- 1/2 cup sour cream

DIRECTIONS

1. Add all ingredients to the crock pot in the order listed above.
2. Cover and cook on LOW for 8-10 hours.
3. Before serving, stir gently to break up the chicken. If using cooked or rotisserie chicken, stir it in and heat through.
4. Stir in sour cream. Serve topped with green onions, Monterey Jack cheese, avocado and/or lime, if desired.

TOPPINGS

- Chopped green onions, optional
- Monterey Jack cheese, optional
- Avocado and/or a squeeze of lime, optional
